REVISED STATUTES

OF KENTUCKY,

NEW EDITION.

BY HON. R. H. STANTON.

This valuable work, prepared with great accuracy, and labor, by the Hon. R. H. STANTON, of Mayville, Ky., contains the Revised Statutes of Kentucky, as originally adopted in 1851-1852, with all the amendments thereto, and general laws of the State, enacted since and up to the present time; thus embodying the whole Statutory System now in force in the State. In addition to the very great convenience of having all the Statutory Law condensed into a single work, we arranged, the text of these volumes illustrated and enriched by full and copious notes of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, settling the construction of such provisions as may hereafter be subjected to doubtful or uncertain meaning. These engaged in the administration of the law in Kentucky, will find much labor of research by thus having in a small compass and condensed form, the whole practical working of the Statutory System of the State.
In truth, the work will be found of great value to all classes of persons.

The work is comprised in TWO ROYAL OCTAVO VOLUMES, printed with new, clear type, upon the very best paper, and bound in superior leather binding.

THE VESPER GAS,

OR AIR LIGHT.

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World.

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures are precisely resembling in form those of gas, but in brilliancy and purity of light it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not liable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixture is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odor while burning, and by those who have had it in constant use for months,

THE COMMONWEALTH. FRANKFORT.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1860.

In another column we publish the speech of W. H. Wadsworth, Esq., before the 23d of February Convention. The speech has been revised by the author, and must therefore be correct. We owe an apology to our readers for not having published it long ago, but the pressure of the Legislative reports must be our excuse. We publish it now to the exclusion of other matter. It is a speech of masterly ability, and does credit to the author. Mr. Wadsworth will do gallant service to the cause of the Opposition in his canvass of the State.

The communication of Chancellor Logan, declining to comply with the provision of the Louisville Police bill, which makes it his duty to appoint Police Commissioners for that city, will be found in to-day's paper. Judge Logan's refusal to act is caused by his opinion that the act is unconstitutional in many of its provisions. His communication is a careful and searching analysis of the practical absurdities of this most iniquitous measure, and will be read with great interest.

WADSWORTH'S MIRROR OF ITALY.—The hour at which we go to press prevents us from giving a notice of this beautiful work of art from actual observation. It was exhibited in our city for the first time last night. The exhibition continues to-night and to-morrow night. We give below the opinion of it by a gentleman who has seen it and who is well qualified to speak of its merits. We advise our friends who have not seen it to go to-night. Hon. JOHN NEAL, the celebrated poet and author, says:

ITALY.—Mr. Editor: The most beautiful Panorama of the most beautiful country in the world being on exhibition at Lancaster Hall, I was in due time to visit it last evening, and found it grand beyond description. There are scenes in this panorama to which words can do no justice. The glorious coloring of earth and sky, the wonderful blending of tints, which makes an Italian sunset so beautiful, must be seen to be appreciated. Through two hundred chosen views—through Northern, Southern and Central Italy, from Como out Venice—the spectator is led by magic charms to St. Peter's, to Naples and Vesuvius. These scenes are so finely finished, that I learn they are frequently exhibited by day light, and will bear the closest scrutiny with an overglaze. Who would not desire to visit in person that lovely land—

"Too beautiful for tyrant's rule, Too proud for tyrant's duty;
Would that hadst less of love,
Or strength as well as beauty."

The land of Caesar, of the Popes, of the great masters of modern art; the land of Shakespeare's, Othello's, Goethe's and Byron's inspiration! It is, alas, too far away for all who would visit it; but here, to the very life, we may see it presented at our own doors, and travel it from end to end, with a well-versed guide, who will not tire of our company. The lecture by the gentlemanly proprietor is well delivered, and of itself worth more than the small sum charged at the door; and the order and pleasing manner in which the entertainment is put upon the stage and conducted, adds much to its character and interest. I am glad to learn that the Mirror is to exhibit for a few days longer, and would recommend all lovers of the beautiful to see it.

JOHN NEAL.
Portland, Maine, Nov. 5, 1858.

DEATH OF MAJOR BARTON.—Major William Barton died at his residence in Bourbon county, on the 5th inst., in the 77th year of his age. He was born in New Jersey, but came to Kentucky with his father when but five years of age. He has lived upon the farm upon which he died ever since the year 1788. In 1812 he volunteered as a private in Capt. Garrard's troop of light horse, and served with distinction during the term of his enlistment. Twice during the campaign it was his fortune to encounter an Indian in single combat, and in both instances the savages fell by his hand. In one of them, as the enemy was in the act of hurling his tomahawk, he rushed upon him, and, rising in his stirrups, brought down his sabre with one sweep of his strong right arm, cleaving the head of the painted savage through to the chin.

THE LOSS OF THE HUNGARIAN.—Halifax papers of March 2d state that a numerous corps of divers had reached the wreck of the Hungarian, whose investigations may lead to some important discoveries in regard to the loss of that vessel and the bodies of her passengers and crew. The Halifax Journal says: "From what we can learn in regard to the position of the wrecked vessel when last seen, she must have struck about midnight, when all but the watch on deck were in their beds, and thus, probably, they perished."

LOVELL H. ROUSSEAU, Esq., has received the nomination of the Opposition party of Louisville for the unexpired term of the Senate made vacant by the death of Hon. John G. Lyons.

JOHN W. BARR, Esq., declines the Democratic nomination for the same position.

From the Louisville Journal.

The Police Bill.—Letter from Chancellor Logan.

The third section of an act approved February 29, 1860, "to provide a more efficient Police Department in the City of Louisville," provides that the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court shall, within twenty days after the passage of the act, appoint two discreet persons, qualified voters of said city, as members of a Police Board for said city, and may remove them at any time and appoint others, or fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise, who before entering upon their duties shall make oath faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties of their office. Provided, however, that when the Mayor of said city shall belong to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall be of the opposite political party; and when the said Mayor shall belong to the party in opposition to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall be of the Democratic party; and said appointees shall be removed as often as may be necessary to carry out this provision. And provided further that if the said Chancellor should fail to make said appointments within twenty days from the passage of this act, all the powers hereby conferred upon him shall be exercised by the Governor, Sec., &c.

The fourth section of the act provides that the Mayor of said city ex officio, and the said appointees of the Chancellor or Governor, shall form a Police Board, and that they shall meet at such place and times as they may determine, and any two of them may act in any case and discharge any duty of the Board.

And by reference to sections 2, 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, and 14th, of the act, it will be seen that the powers conferred, and the duties enjoined, upon the two officers, whom the Chancellor is directed to appoint, are of an important, responsible and permanent nature—and that they are partly executive and partly judicial in their character. For after the second Saturday, in May, 1861, and in every second year thereafter, the Mayor, with the advice and consent of said two members, is required to appoint a Chief of Police for the term of two years—and, with their advice and consent he is immediately authorized to appoint any number of supernumerary watchmen for a term not exceeding two years, and he is authorized to fill vacancies in the offices of Chief of Police and supernumerary watchmen.

And the Board are authorized to approve or reject the bonds which the various officers elected or appointed under the act are required to give; and further by any one of the officers, for seven days after his election or appointment, to give such a bond as the Board will approve, operates to vacate the office; and the vacancy thus made is to be filled as other vacancies are to be filled.

And the Board are authorized to employ a clerk, upon a salary to be fixed by the Board, to keep a record of the proceedings—and they are not only authorized to summon and attach witnesses, and try, and remove or suspend from office the Chief of Police or his assistants (who are appointed to office by said Board)—but they are authorized to try any watchman or any other member of the Police force, now or hereafter filling office, (though elected thereto by the people), and to remove or suspend them from office. And it is provided that the pay of any removed or suspended officer shall cease immediately after his removal or suspension.

These important judicial and executive powers to be exercised in future in reference to the Chief of Police, and the watchmen of the several wards in the City of Louisville, are by this act jointly conferred upon the Mayor, (who is elected for a term by the people) and upon the two associate "discreet persons"—qualified voters of the city—who by the act are neither to be elected for a "term" by the people nor appointed for a "term" by the Chancellor.

Touching these two "discreet persons," the act simply provides that the Chancellor shall appoint them as members of a Police Board, and may remove them at any time, and appoint others, or fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise. Provided, however, that when the Mayor of said city shall belong to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall belong to the opposite political party, and when the said Mayor shall belong to the party in opposition to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall be of the Democratic party; and said appointees shall be removed as often as may be necessary to carry out this provision.

It is evident, then, from the act that one of the official qualifications prescribed for said two persons is that they shall be of opposite political parties to the Mayor. The act also provides that the Mayor belongs to the Democratic party, and that they must be of the opposite political party if the Mayor belongs to the Democratic party; and not only so, but it is also necessary, as a qualification for office, that they should continue to be Democrats if the Mayor be of opposite politics, or Democrats if the Mayor be a Democrat.

For, if the two "discreet" officers should at any time abandon their political party and join the Mayor's party, or if the Mayor should desert his party and join the party of his two associates, the result, in either case, would be to disqualify the two associates for their judicial and executive duties.

So that their tenure of office may at any time be broken either by their own change of opinion or by the Mayor's change of opinion.

But their tenure of office is even more frail than that of the Mayor. For even though they change to preserve a constant antagonism in politics between themselves and the Mayor by changing whenever the Mayor changes, and not changing unless the Mayor changes, they may still be removed at any time by the Chancellor.

For the act confers upon the Chancellor absolute and arbitrary power to remove them at any time. It is plain therefore that they are mere tenants at will of the appointing power, and that they are not elected nor appointed for a term nor during good behavior.

Now the question is, whether the act requiring the Chancellor to appoint said two associate officers—with such powers as are conferred upon them—is a constitutional law.

This question must be determined before I can exercise the power attempted to be given. With the mere policy of the law I have of course nothing whatever to do. And it behooves me to be very cautious in pronouncing an act of Legislature to be unconstitutional.

But I am constrained to the conclusion that the act approved February 29th, 1860, so far as it directs the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court to appoint, upon the terms there prescribed, the two associate members of the Police Board of the City of Louisville, is contrary to the letter, spirit, and fundamental principles of the Constitution.

It seems to me that whether the two associate officers be regarded as judicial, or executive, or ministerial officers; or whether they be regarded as city officers, county officers, or State officers, they are not competent for the Legislature to vest in the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court the power of appointing them during the will of the Chancellor and during the continuance of a political antagonism between them and the Mayor, and without prescribing any fixed term to the office.

One of the most striking features of the new Constitution is, that it prescribes a "term" for every permanent office designated in the instrument; and even in reference to officers for towns and cities, and counties and districts not specially named, and inferior State officers, it is not competent for the Legislature to vest in the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court the power of appointing them during the will of the Chancellor and during the continuance of a political antagonism between them and the Mayor, and without prescribing any fixed term to the office.

And section 10, of the same article, says that "the General Assembly may provide for the election or appointment for a term not exceeding four years, of such other county or district ministerial and executive officers as shall from time to time be necessary and proper."

And article 3, section 25, says that "inferior officers, not specially provided for in this Constitution, may be appointed or elected in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, for a term not exceeding four years."

And article 8, section 11, says that "all civil officers for the Commonwealth at large shall reside within the State, and all districts, county, or town officers within their respective districts, counties, or towns, (excepted towns excepted), and shall keep their offices at such places therein as may be prescribed by law."

And article 13, section 28, says "that the General Assembly shall not create any office the appointment to which shall be for a longer time than for a term of years—thus changing the provision of the old Constitution which prohibited the General Assembly from creating any office, the appointment to which should be for a longer time than during good behavior."

Now it seems to me that the two associate officers who are to act with the Mayor are invested with judicial as well as executive powers—and that they are officers for the City of Louisville—and as such they should both be elected by the people, and for some definite period of time—in other words, for a term of years. But if I am mistaken supposing that they are officers for the City of Louisville, they must then certainly be officers either of a county, or a district, or the State; and whether they be one or the other the letter and spirit of the Constitution require that they should be appointed for a term of years, and not during good behavior, nor during the will of the Chancellor, nor during their continuance in Democracy, or Whiggery, or Americanism, or Republicanism, or Northern, Southern, or middle Statesism, or during the holding of any set of opinions of whatever character—either political or religious.

It is just as competent for the Legislature to prescribe a particular set of religious opinions as a qualification for office as to prescribe a particular set of political opinions. It is just as competent for the Legislature to declare by law that the Chancellor should appoint to a judgeship two discreet persons who were Protestants if the Mayor happened to be a Catholic (and vice versa), as to declare by law that the Chancellor should appoint two discreet persons who were Democrats, if the Mayor happened to belong to the Opposition party (and vice versa). In the one case religious freedom would be infringed, and in the other case political freedom would be infringed. According to the bill of rights, civil rights, privileges, or capacities can not be diminished or enlarged on account of a man's religion. And according to the bill of rights no man or set of men are entitled to exclusive privileges but in consideration of public services. And by the constitution all elections are to be free and equal—and absolute arbitrary power exists no where in a Republic. And it is a qualification for office to make a man's qualification for office depend upon his political opinions and party, is a gross perversion of that expression in the constitution which reserves to the Legislature the power of prescribing by law the qualifications of a certain class of officers.

For these reasons and others that could be multiplied, I must declare that portion of political equity jurisdiction which the act of the 29th of February 1860, confers and imposes upon the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court.

WILL stand the present season at COTTAGE HILL, on the Frankfort and Georgetown turnpike, 3 miles from the Banks of Elkhorn, and 7 miles from Frankfort, at $15 to insure a coat, and pastured furnished gratis to males coming from a distance.
Description and Pedigree.
Lucifer is a black iron gray, 5 years old, with heavy white mane and tail, and a white blaze on his face. He is eminently calculated to produce stock suited to every purpose for which the horse is required. Being himself bred in the appearance of proper size, faultless in form, mild and gentle in disposition, with action both for harness and saddle rarely equalled, very few, if any, any horse in Kentucky of his age can show greater trotting speed in harness, and it has been with great difficulty that he has been restrained from going all the saddle gait, as naturally as another, and all with unparelleled speed and style, and produced more fine saddle and harness stock than any other horse known. He is the pure Norman French breed from Canada, and his color is a dam was a large brown mare; blood unknown; was a natural pacer and could, without training, pace her mare's miles.

I invite the attention of breeders to this young horse, at his stand, where I have a good track, and where persons wishing to breed can have an opportunity of witnessing his speed.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Its wonderful effects and consequent popularity—perhaps no article in the history of the Materia Medica, has acquired the same patronage, was subjected to the same number of severe and different tests, and met with so few failures as the Mustang Liniment. It has justly been styled a Panacea for all external Wounds, Cuts, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, or Eruptions on Man or Beast. It is so far a medicine of surprising virtue, that Physicians are compelled to prescribe it, and from some remarkable cases of Chronic and Distorted Rheumatism it has naturally attracted much attention from the first scientific minds of the age. No family can afford to be without a bottle of the Mustang Liniment in the house. Beware of imitations. The genuine is sold by respectable Dealers in all parts of the world.

Thomas Ford, a blacksmith, living near Cape Avenue, on Tenth Street, had a horrible running sore on his foot. He tried various salves, ointments, &c., but could do it no good. He despaired of ever being able to walk on his foot again, because he could not bear any weight on his foot. He bought one small bottle of M'Lean's Volcanic Oil Liniment, he is now perfectly cured.

Rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, bruises, sprains, stiffness in the joints or muscles, swellings, sore throat, ear-ache or tooth-ache, wounds, fresh cuts, sores, burns, scalds,

AYER'S Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chills, Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this danger must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection.
It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them.
Their purgative properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid, who is bowed down with pain or physical debility, is enabled to find relief and health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and invigorating.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costive-ness, Headache, Biliousness, Indigestion, Painful Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Painful and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the bowels, or from obstruction of its functions. They are an excellent remedy for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate.
While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, and proved beneficial to the afflicted, they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

WORMS! WORMS! WORMS!!!

THIS season is at hand when these sources of childhood begin to afflict the young. It is a sad sight to see a child, who is otherwise healthy and happy, suffer from the effects of these little parasites. The best remedy for this complaint is a simple and effectual one. DR. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM the evil. There is no danger in its use, and it is easy to take the Medicine. It is prepared in the form more effectually than any remedy now in use, while at the same time it will in no way affect injuriously the health of the child.

HEALTH RESTORED!

DR. MOTT'S

Chalybeate Pills.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, of high medical property and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz:

DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACI-ATION, DYSPPEPSIA, DIARRHEA, CONSTI-PATION, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, SCURVY, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINTS, RHEUMA-TISM, MERCURIAL CONSEQUENCES, INTER-MITTENT FEVERS, NEURALGIA, ECHONIC HEADACHES, FEMALE WEAKNESS, MIS-MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, etc.

THE IRON being absorbed by the blood, and passing through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexion, and all the various evils which attend every conceivable case. In all cases of female debility (dysmenstruation, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and perfectly permanent effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
As a grand stomachic and general restorative, it has no superior and no substitute.

It has no heat, no smell, no taste, and contains 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50; one dozen boxes, $4.00. For sale by Druggists generally. Write for sent free to any address, and should be addressed to

R. B. LOCKE & CO.,

General Agents.

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

Only One Dollar Per Annum!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!!

The First Volume of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the June number, and the Second Volume will commence in July. We promised a year ago to try and give to the Agricultural and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair oportunity for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the Kentucky Farmer? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and try and send us one or more additional names for the SECOND VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume have about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish our Second Volume, and we are glad to say that we are now publishing it. The publication of the June number has redeemed that pledge. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "KENTUCKY FARMER" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the cost of postage and collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail, at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be postpaid.
